LAST PRAYER SERVICE.

As the last prayer service at the Methodist church tonight is the last for the Conference year, I hope to see a large attendance. Begins promptly at 7:30.

At 8:30 there will be a choir practice for the Thanksgiving service.
The members of the various choirs of the city are invited.

Thomas H. Morris.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Inasmuch as Thursday, Nov. 25th has been designated by his Excellency President Wm. Taft for the Nation, and Governor Thomas M. Campbell for the State of Texas, as a day of Thanksgiving, now therefore, I, J. T.
Maloney, mayor of the city of Bryan, declare said day a holiday, and call on the people of said city to refrain from their usual labors and to close their places of business. Let all assemble at the designated places of worship and give thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for the manifold blessings that have been ours during the past year. It is meet that we do this and all are urged to comply with this proclamation.

Witness my hand and official seal of the city of Bryan this 24th day of November, A. D. 1909.

J. T. MALONEY,
Mayor of Bryan.

STORES TO CLOSE.

In another place in this paper will be seen the Thanksgiving proclamation of Mayor Maloney designating tomorrow as a holiday and calling on the people to desist from their labors and close their places of business.
The reporter has seen a big majority of the merchants today and as is of their usual custom on Thanksgiving, all will close and make it a day of rest for themselves and their employees.

Mr. J. H. Mawhinney also circulated a closing agreement this morning and all the merchants of this city signed it willingly.

Perhaps no political postulation ever published in Texas was received with a greater variety of emotions than the announcement of Attorney General Davidson's candidacy for governor. On the one hand it is greeted with acclamations of joy; on the other, with howls of rage and wails of despair.
